

The Living Memory Project

Do you live in Birmingham and care for someone who is approaching their end of life? Or have you cared for a loved one who has passed away in the last few years?

We are offering the unique opportunity for you to tell your story about them to help celebrate their life. We will work with you to help tell the story and select a set of your treasured photographs to go alongside it.

Each story will be carefully edited and published as a small professionally printed booklet that will be yours to keep.

People who took part in the project have said:

“I received my copy of Living Memories book today. It is so beautiful in every way. It took my breath away. I cannot thank you enough for everything you have done and enabling the memories of my amazing mom live on.”

“The book you have created for us is stunning. Thank you and I mean it. It is a beautiful tribute to my perfect parents.”
